“When Tradition Replaces Truth”

Mark 7:1-13

Jesus was not a religious leader. He was a righteous leader. In fact, He was often confronting the religious leaders of His day. Why? Because they used religion and man-made tradition to replace God’s truth and revelation. In this section of Scripture, truth and tradition have a head-on collision.

I. Confrontation (vv. 1-5)

II. Condemnation (vv. 6-9)

III. Clarification (vv. 10-13)

Learn Your Bible: Don’t wait to make a New Year’s resolution to spend more time in the Word. Start building a new rhythm to deepen your relationship with Jesus and knowledge of truth.
Love Your Neighbor: Pray for those who will be on campus for our Thanksgiving Pickup Party next Saturday. And if you haven’t already, sign up to serve with us at cabq.us/tppserve.
Live in Freedom: Ask the Lord to reveal the traditions you’ve allowed to supersede your relationship with Him and surrender each of them.
